Hi Ehud,
Truly it is a misunderstanding- first I am interested in the Project and second I would like to be involved and I trust the shareholders- so all in all a good combination that is why i reached out to you. I thought you might have been very busy but did not understand why you did not come back to me.
Let me know where you stand in terms of the project and how can I be of help
Best
Nicole

Hi Nicole
Probably that's the case.
I've stayed on the line after you've left with your guy. He was very thoughtful and penetrating in his analysis but I clearly understood that you are NOT interested in Reporty. I've just respected it and didn't bother you anymore with this.
If that's not the case let's consider how to continue from here.
Best
Ehud

Let me know if it is still up to date
Have a nice day
